Vision Statement

We will create:

- A world where we hold human life and its preservation as the highest of values.
- An environment where Incident and Injury-Free is our way of life.
- An organization in which “who we are” sends an unwavering message throughout the industry that we do what’s “right” because it’s the right thing to do.
- A culture that places the utmost value upon our families, coworkers, and ourselves.
- A world where our commitment to excellence equally drives our personal and professional lives.

What IIF is NOT about:

- Goals
- Guarantees
- Prescriptive fixes
- Elimination of risk

What IIF IS about:

- ✓ A mindset intolerant of any injury; all workers going home safely every day– no kidding
- ✓ Taking responsibility for your own safety and those who work with you and around you
- ✓ Caring for one another and demonstrating that you care on a daily basis
- ✓ Taking action when you see potentially unsafe behaviors or conditions
- ✓ Choosing to speak up, to act, to follow the safety rules and procedures (versus having to follow them)

Creating an Incident and Injury-Free Culture Requires

- A bold, aligned commitment to the elimination of workplace injury and incidents
- Establishing a sense of urgency for the elimination of incidents and injuries
- Formation of a powerful coalition to lead the Initiative
- Creating and nurturing a vision of Incident and Injury-Free that emphasizes the impact on people and the possibilities it creates
- Communicating the vision to everyone many times and in many ways
